BLENDING DESIGN WITH PRODUCTIVITY

Attune is an adaptable, lean, and light solution that fits seamlessly into any environment while providing superior comfort and proper ergonomic support. Designed in collaboration with Aaron Duke's firm, Studio Black Box, Attune is a futuristic task seating solution that utilizes "materiality" to instantly adapt to all users' body types while remaining durable and exceptionally resistant to impact and flex fatigue. Attune's dynamic form exudes a lightness that expresses levity, mobility, and adaptability – all answering the call for collaborative, highly flexible, and intuitive task seating that fits seamlessly into home or office environments.
